Young People Update

With the completion of exams and the beginning of summer, we have made a few changes to our regular schedule. For our Saturday YP meetings, we have been starting earlier, sometimes at 4:00 p.m., and at other times beginning our fellowship and enjoyment in the early afternoon with a sporting activity and ending around 6:00. During these times of fellowship, we have also been focusing on the verses for the SSoT with their relevant categories. We have also been pursuing our vision of meeting from house to house. So far, we've been to Ivan and Maria's home in West Island and the sisters' home downtown. We hope to continue in this vein as much as is possible; it affords us a way to blend with the families, college saints and other community saints. Our ultimate goal is that the YP would mingle and blend with all the saints and be integrated into the church life in a normal way.

Two weeks ago, the serving sisters, a few college sisters and six YP sisters spent a weekend together at the sisters' home. During this time, we all took part in the French-speaking home meeting held at the sisters' home, and we enjoyed the Lord together while engaging in different activities.

From August 7-12, the Eastern Canada Summer School of Truth takes place at Redeemer College in Ancaster, Ontario. The general theme is "God's Full Salvation." Fourteen YP (seven brothers and seven sisters) and four serving ones (three brothers and one sister) have registered to attend. For two of our YP, this is their first time attending. Our hope and prayer is that they would all enjoy the Lord together with the other YP from the different localities, that they would have their own personal encounter with the Lord, that they would open to the Lord to love Him, that He would gain them and they would gain Him as well, that they would be constituted with the Lord, and that they would develop spiritual companions.
