Update on the English speaking saints

Praise the Lord that the saints continue to grow in life and enjoyment of the Lord through the blending and pursuing of the word. The saints are encouraged to open their homes for more blending and fellowship and with the conference from this past week; this has been strengthened by the saints' consecration.

Moving forward, we want to continue to blend the saints in the meetings and also encourage the saints to visit the other groups in their meetings. Some of the English speaking saints have also expressed their openness to help take care of the college saints now that school has started. We seek the Lord's leading in how this will be arranged.
