Update on Children Service

* Taking care of the young children during the Lord's table meeting: we continue to progress in this area.

* 2012 Children camp: It was mentioned during a fellowship meeting with all the Canada brothers that the children camp may be more localised moving forward. Some of the localities in Eastern Canada have expressed a desire to have their own localised children camps. For this year, we may invite all the Churches in Eastern Canada, but the focus will primarily be the children from Montreal and Ottawa only. It would not be limited if there are children and serving ones from the Toronto area willing to come. The date will need to be selected and confirmed as soon as possible to coincide with the Bibles for Canada distribution.

* Remaining needs for facilities: There are some needs for facilities replacement such as the replacement chairs in Group 1 room and white boards in the rooms

Confession and recompense

Scripture Reading: Lev. 6:1-7; Matt. 5:23-26

IV. A FEW PRACTICAL CONSIDERATIONS (continued)

Fourth, the law in the Old Testament states that if the rightful recipient of one's recompense has passed away and has left no relatives to accept the recompense, it should go to the priests who serve Jehovah (Num. 5:8). According to this principle, if the recipient of your recompense is no longer available, the recompense should go to his relatives. If he has no relatives, you should give it to the church. If you can make recompense to someone, you should give it to him or to his relatives. You cannot give it to the church for the sake of convenience. However, if someone wants to make confession but the offended party has passed away and there seems to be no opportunity to confess, he can confess the matter to the church according to this principle.

Fifth, after making confession you need to make sure that you are not condemned in your conscience. It is possible for one's conscience to suffer repeated condemnation even after he has confessed. We must be clear that the Lord's blood has cleansed our conscience. His death has given us a conscience that is void of offense before God and has enabled us to draw near to God. All these are facts. However, we must see that in order to be clean before man, we need to deal with many sins. We need to settle all offenses in material things as well as in other matters. But we should not allow Satan to condemn us excessively.
