

Please pray:

- ✳ Montreal French gospel meeting follow-up: Please continue to pray for the follow-up of the 20 contacts who came to this time. Many of them expressed interest to be added to our email list for the upcoming meetings and Bible studies. May the Lord be our wisdom, our strength, and our Shepherd to know how to take care of these new ones. May some of these new ones become remaining fruit, materials for His building.
- ✳ We thank the Lord for the North America College Training that concluded this past weekend. Pray that the Lord could fully gain these college-age saints to have the volition, initiation, resolution and separation to be the Nazarites that the He needs for the fulfillment of His will in this age!
- ✳ The Summer School of Truth (SSOT) will be held from Aug 2-7 : (1) Pray that many young people in eastern Canada, from Windsor to Halifax will sign up in the coming weeks (2) Pray that they will give themselves fully to this time to pursue the Lord and to blend with other young people in eastern Canada. (3) Pray for many burdened serving ones to rise up and give their time and energy to pray for and shepherd the participating young people.
- ✳ Summer time: Pray that this summer will be redeemed and sanctified; that the young people and the college students will take this time to read the word, get into the ministry, and spend much time with the Lord; that the Lord will use this summer to grow more in them and gain more of them.
- ✳ Follow-up of the second Rhema virtual seminar that was held on July 25 for Rhema readers in Belgium, France and Switzerland: Pray that all who attended this seminar may be personally connected to the local saints; pray that the saints will have the way and the supply to shepherd the most seeking ones into the church life.

B. Preparing a Record Book

In order to pray for people in a proper way, you should keep a record book. Allow God to put the names of those whom He wishes to save in your heart. When you were first saved, how did you know to whom you should go to make restitution? How did you know whom you should repay? It was the Lord who put the person's name in your heart and who reminded you of particular things. This reminder compelled you to make restitution with others. One day you suddenly thought of something. Another day something else came to your mind. As a result of this enlightening, you dealt with these things one by one. The same principle holds true in leading men to Christ. Allow the Lord to put some names in your heart. When these names are in your heart, spontaneously you will be burdened to pray for them. The Lord may put a few people or a few dozen people in your heart. In writing these names down, the most important thing to remember is to take the names that the Lord has put in your heart. Do not sit down and simply make out a list at random. You will be wasting your time if you mindlessly write down something. Your success will be dependent upon how good your start is. You have to ask God specifically for a few names. Out of all your family members, friends, colleagues, schoolmates, and those whom you know, a few names will spontaneously come to your mind. You will have a feeling for them, and you will want them to be saved first.

A record book should have the following columns: The first column should be a number; the second column, the date; and the third column, the name. This will remind us of the number we have assigned to a person and the date we began to pray for him. The fourth column should also be a date—the date when the person is saved. If the person unfortunately dies, we can put the date of death in this column. One should persist and not give up once a name is in the book. The prayer for a person should follow him until he dies. If the person is alive and not saved, you should keep on praying for him until he is saved. One brother prayed for his friend for eighteen years before his friend was saved. It is not certain when a person will be saved. Some are saved in a year, and some in two to three months. Perhaps one or two of them may prove to be very difficult, but in the end they will still be saved. You should not relax but relentlessly pursue in prayer for their salvation.
